

Area 1: Battery & Solar
Fee £300

- Review your historic electricity bills to understand how much electricity you use and when
- Establish the cost and potential savings of a home battery and / or solar panels
- Provide a written personalised report
- Identify a trusted installer and obtain full, detailed, personalised quotes
- Help you make an informed decision about what's right for you

Area 2: Electric Vehicle
Fee £150

- Review how you use your current car and what it costs to run
- Calculate the equivalent running costs of an electric vehicle
- Identify the costs of switching to an EV, including a home charger if appropriate
- Help you make an informed decision about what's right for you

electrify my home

Impartial home energy advice

Area 3: Home Heating
Fee £300

- Review your historic heating costs and gas (or oil) consumption
- Adopt a 'fabric first' approach – look for 'easy wins' to make your home more energy efficient.
- Consider the different heating systems available
- Establish the costs and potential savings of electric heating
- Identify a trusted installer and obtain full, detailed, personalised quotes
- Help you make an informed decision about what's right for you